Youth Sessions – NEW!
AIANEA 2010 Training Conference

The Youth Session will begin on Wednesday, June 9th, at 8:00 AM.

The youth will be introduced to Lakota hand games by Ashley Phelps, a local college student at Oglala Lakota College. Following the hand games, they will hear stories told by an AIANEA Elder.

After a snack break, they will observe what effects the quality of our soil by Kent Cooley, NRCS, Soil Scientist. Following Cooley's presentation Dwight Tober, NRCS, Plant Material Specialist will show the youth traditional plants grown at the Bismarck Plant Materials Center.

The youth will attend the awards luncheon that includes a Song and Dance Demonstration: A Center of Lakota Cultural Expression by the One Star Family. The luncheon is included in the youth registration fee.

Following lunch, the youth will participate in concurrent sessions of an introduction to engineering by NRCS Engineers and a class on Lakota archery by Mike One Star. Following a snack break, the group will take a longer break at the Ramkota Indoor Waterpark.

On Thursday, June 10th, the youth will participate in the Black Hills Tour, which is covered in their registration. The tour will visit the Lower Brule ranch, Bear Butte, Crazy Horse Memorial and Mt. Rushmore Memorial.
